Everything where it should be: the new cashmere leather accessories

The new large and small cashmere leather accessories are as practical to use as they are beautiful to look at. Each is made of embossed grain Italian calfskin leather, stitched with perfectly matched thread and featuring a lining of soft Alcantara.

Writing case

Keep your documents, letters and favourite pen all organised in this beautifully crafted writing case made of the most supple cashmere leather. This sleek new writing case by Graf von Faber-Castell combines purist design with the sensual feel of leather and also features a soft Alcantara interior lining. There are two lightweight sizes to choose from – one fits in a briefcase for going to the office, while the other can be kept in a purse.

Credit card case

Whether you're going around the corner or around the world, this handy credit card case in black or dark brown leather holds all your essentials. It has space for eight cards and your personal ID card, as well as a coin pouch lined in orange. The practical pleat allows you to open the coin pouch wide enough to easily find the correct change. A zip keeps it all safe.

Coin purse

Taking just the essentials? This coin purse is designed to carry your credit cards as well just in case you run out of cash. Available in black or dark brown leather.

Travel case

Here is your new all-rounder: this travel case with zip holds not only your favourite pens and pencils, but also other important items such as a charging cable for your smartphone, sunglasses or even your jewellery. Available in black or dark brown leather.
